

‘News of Dawood’s resignation is speculation’

ISLAMABAD: Commerce Division on Saturday stated that speculations of Commerce Advisor’s resignation are incorrect.

Clarifying a news item, Commerce Division said it is clarified that Prime Minister’s Adviser on Commerce, Textile, Industries & Production Abdul Razak Dawood is currently out of country due to some personal engagements after seeking due permission from the competent authority. He will resume his duties from Monday June 17, 2019.—PR
