

Drive against tax defaulting vehicles

Sindh Excise and Taxation Department (E&T) is going to kick off its four-day road checking campaign from 24 June. The decision was made during a meeting chaired by the E&T Minister at his office. It was proposed that the action would be taken against the use of motor vehicles by second or progressive owners on transfer of ownership letters (open letters) and tax defaulting vehicles across the Sindh.

RECORDER REPORT