

The Newspaper's Staff Reporter

Reserves rise

KARACHI: Foreign exchange reserves of the country increased to $15.462bn during the week ended on Nov 15.

This was led by a rise of $45m in State Bank's reserves which took its stock to $8.442bn.

Meanwhile, holdings of commercial banks stood at $7.02bn during the week.

The central bank's reserves have increased for the third consecutive week.