

30th November, 2019

From the Newspaper

Textile & GST

THE delay in processing refund claims has completely blocked the flow of cash within the textile sector. Textile exporters have given billions of rupees in GST to the government and have been waiting for the refund so they could carry on their rolling.

Local textile market is the most affected. Brokers, shopkeepers, labour and transport drivers are facing problems. The 17 per cent GST system can only survive if the same rate is applied across the system.

Awais Mahmood

Sukkur