Amanullah elected APTMA chairman unopposed

LAHORE: The All Pakistan Textile Mills Association (APTMA) Election Commission has announced Amanullah Qasim of Qasim Denim as central Chairman of the Association unopposed.

Scrutiny of the nomination papers for the office bearers of 2019-20 elections held at the APTMA Punjab office on Tuesday. Chairman Election Commission Shahid Mazhar conducted scrutiny of the nomination papers. All the office bearers have been elected unopposed.

As per details, Rehman Nasim has been elected as Senior Vice Chairman, Naveed Ahmed as Vice Chairman for Sindh-Balochistan region and Taimoor Shah as Vice Chairman for Khyber Pakhtunkhwa region.

Speaking on the occasion, the newly-elected Chairman APTMA Amanullah Qasim said APTMA represents the whole value chain and it would keep working for the collective good of it.

Group leader APTMA Gohar Ejaz congratulated the new leadership and expressed the hope that it would give their best to resolve the issues of the textile industry. He said the government is responsive to the industry issues relating to revival and growth and is committed to resolve them. He has also appreciated the selfless services rendered by the outgoing Chairman Syed Ali Ahsan, saying that he had taken over the Association in a challenging situation and worked hard to deal with it to the best of his abilities.
