

Visa on arrival

THE government in its endeavour to promote tourism has allowed nationals from 50 countries to be granted visa on arrival. Though it seems a step in the right direction, I have two apprehensions.

One, has the same facility been provided to Pakistani national by the countries concerned? Second, how will the government ensure that people like Raymond Davis will not misuse the facility and use it for terrorism instead of tourism?

Proper security protocols must be ensured, otherwise it will be a heavy price to pay if unwanted people get access to Pakistan.
