

Collector Customs assures PCDMA of providing facilities

KARACHI: Collector customs, Dr Mohammad Nadeem Memon has assured a delegation of Pakistan Chemicals & Dyes Merchants Association (PCDMA) of providing all possible facilities to commercial imports as per rules.

Talking to a delegation of Pakistan Chemicals & Dyes Merchants Association (PCDMA) lead by its chairman Amin Yusuf Balgamwala, he also assured to solve problems faceted by them. Dr. Mohammad Nadeem Memon discussed the issues with delegation including weboc and said that would be tried to resolve the difficulties of the members of the association on priority basis so that there would be no barrier to imports. Amin Yusuf Balgamwala informed about problems and said that PCDMA is always helping in customs price valuation for the last 30 years, but at the import level, commercial importers are facing various problems that need to be addressed. He urged the collector of customs that PCDMA recommendations in respect of weboc should be accepted and facilitate PCDMA members with regard to ID.
