

Renewable energy

THE article on renewable energy (EOS, Nov 4) is an excellent case for the overwhelming use of renewable sources (solar, wind and bio-gas).

The question is: if renewable energy has so many advantages over conventional means of generating electricity, why hasn't Pakistan gone for it in a big way?

Are we truly addicted to burning fossil fuels or is it because of the powerful imported oil and LNG lobby?

Published in Dawn, November 30th, 2018

Asif Jah
Karachi