

Imran will find solutions to crisis: KATI

Page No.03 ColNo.05
RECORDER

REPORT

KARACHI: Korangi Association of Trade and Industry's president Tariq Malik has congratulated Pakistan Tahreek-e-Insaf chairman on his election as the Prime Minister of Pakistan.

He said many challenges were waiting for the newly-elected government; economy is top of them. He said KATI believe that Imran Khan would find solutions to the crisis after taking charge of premiership.

S.M Muneer expressed hope that the Prime Minister-elect would take measures in the right direction to bring back country's economy on the right track of development. He said business community expected development-oriented policies from new government. KATI's senior vice president Salman Aslam said that a great milestone of democracy's continuity and political stability has been achieved; now this is time to move forward and show unity.

KATI's vice president Junaid Naqi said that industry was facing many hurdles, production cost was high, insufficient infrastructure and struggling exports were the major problem for industrial section.

"We hope the newly-elected Prime Minister Imran Khan will choose his economic team, keeping these challenges in view," he said.