

Maersk Line-Damco merger in 2019

Global Shipping Giant A P Moller-Maersk has announced that effective from 1st January 2019, Damco Supply Chain Services along with their respective value-added services (VAS) will combine with Maersk Line's Ocean Products to be sold as Maersk products and services to customers.

The Damco and Maersk Line commercial teams will be merged into one fully integrated organization. One leadership, one frontline organization, going to market under one brand, Maersk, and backed up by one product organization.

Damco Freight Forwarding will remain an independent business unit and will continue to work separately under the Damco Brand. Aruna Hussain, former Chief Operations Officer for Damco Middle East and Chief Executive Officer of Damco Pakistan will lead the new integrated organization as Managing Director of Maersk Pakistan.-PR

RECORDER REPORT