

UBG hails businessmen's inclusion in caretaker set-up

Page NO.07 Col No.03

RECORDER

REPORT

KARACHI: Members of United Business Group (UBG) have welcomed the induction of four other businessmen as ministers in the caretaker setup terming it a positive move.

Those who have become ministers include Fazal Elahi (KP) former vice president FPCCI, Sardar Tanveer Ilyas (Punjab) former chairman of Islamabad Builders and Developers Association, Farzana Baloch, Leader Women Chamber Quetta and Faisal Mushtaq (Punjab), prominent businessman who are respected businessmen that enjoy the confidence of the business community.

Patron-in-chief of UBG S M Muneer said all the four businessmen as ministers in the caretaker understand the issues being faced by the business.

United Business Group chairman Iftikhar Ali Malik said businessmen know how to harness human capability and their businesses thrive when leaders have an eye for talent and can create conditions that are conducive for creativity and productivity.

FPCCI's former president Zubail Tufail, UBG spokesman Gulzar Firoz, chairman UBG (Sindh) Khalid Tawab, Mumtaz Shaikh, Shakil Ahmed Dhengra and chairman UBG (Canada Chapter) Navaid Bukhari also congratulated Fazal Elahi, Sardar Tanveer Ilyas, Farzana Baloch and Faisal Mushtaq.